Mr. President: As physician to the Governor, I recommended his withdrawal from the cares of office as early as the Trains Arrive. 1st of Setenmber last. I have been sequainted with him for many years, and have been his family physician for three years. I have witnessed with painful anxiety the approach of his learful malady. The disease is a paralysis perophlegs, evidently produced by the fatigues to which the Governor has been subjected, both mentally and physically, during the last five years. But notwithstanding all I could say, I was unable to prevail upon him to withdraw from the duties of his office at that time. He thought it necessary to give his personal attention to the management of the public business and interests of the State until winter; but I never cessed to admonish him of the danger of so doing. Profits of the Express Business. A letter from New York says: "The profitableness of the express business has been fully ustrated this week by the declaration of a handsome extra dividend, over which the stated some of the disadvantages in his experi- lucky shareholders of the American Express Company's stock are rejeicing considerably, This company paid in 1864, dividends on a capital of $2,000,000, amounting to 38 per cent. in cash, and 50 per cent, in paid up stock. On its capital, thus increased to $3,000,000, it has already declared, in 1865, cash dividends of 26 per cent., and 25 per cent. in stock, with a very reasonable prospect of an additional 25 per cent, within the coming four months. What wonder, then, that the stock of this institution is marketable at three times its value?
